Art Unit: 2632

1. A substitute specification excluding the claims is required pursuant to 37 CFR 1.125(a) because the sections of the specification submitted 6/21/01 are presented out of order, i.e. the "Brief Description of Drawings" section (sheet "12 of 44" in applicant's submission) should appear just before the "Description of Preferred Embodiment" section (which starts with sheet "23 of 44" in applicant's submission); note item (g) in the list below. In other words, the page numbers of the specification submitted 6/21/01 should be re-ordered so that the various parts of the specification are in proper order.

A substitute specification filed under 37 CFR 1.125(a) must only contain subject matter from the original specification and any previously entered amendment under 37 CFR 1.121. If the substitute specification contains additional subject matter not of record, the substitute specification must be filed under 37 CFR 1.125(b) and (c).

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.

- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "additional electric switching means" of claim 4, lines 6-7; claim 10, line 5; claim 13, line 33; and claim 19, line 5, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation on the last 4 lines of claim 1, regarding how the "receiving means" (i.e., magnetic switch 14) operates to control the "selected mode" of the overall device, is vaguely worded and/or indefinite for the following reasons:

1) It does not appear to be literally true (based on the specification and drawings) that the receiving means 14 (magnetic switch) can "activate and deactivate" the chime/delay alarm modes electric switching means (i.e. slide switch 16, described as manually actuated in the specification); rather, the switch means 16 is used manually to control the "mode" (chime or delay-alarm), and the receiving means 14 simply causes the alarm 18 to turn on or off based on the "mode" manually set by the switch means 16.

2) It is unclear whether there is intended to be a one-to-one correspondence between the terms "activate" and "deactivate" (in the phrase "automatically activate and deactivate said 'chime'/'delay alarm' modes electric switching means") and the terms "opening" and "closing" (in the phrase "responsive to the opening and closing of said door"); i.e., it appears to be recited that "opening" the door always results in "activation" per se (of the alarms or modes), and "closing" the door always results in "deactivation" per se (of the alarms or modes).

3) The phrase "the selected mode" lacks clear antecedent basis, i.e. there is no prior recitation of a mode being "selected" per se, and it is unclear if the phrase in parentheses ("i.e. 'chime' or 'delay alarm' mode") necessarily relates to, and/or completely defines, the possible "selected" modes.

Also, the corresponding language in claim 7, lines 16-19 is likewise vaguely worded and/or indefinite.

In claim 3, lines 16-19, "causing a pre-set entry delay time means of said electric circuit logic means to cause said 'delay alarm' operational mode of said 'chime'/'delay alarm' electric switching means to be responsive to the opening of said door..." is vaguely worded in view of the multiple uses of "cause" (or "causing"), i.e. it is unclear how (or whether) operation of the magnetically actuated switch (see line 11) directly or indirectly affects (or triggers) these various functions.

Also, the corresponding language in claim 9, lines 15-17, and claim 18, lines 17-20, is likewise vaguely worded and/or indefinite.

In claim 6, line 2, "visual and manual functional testing means" is vaguely worded, i.e. the nature of the element(s) being implicitly defined with respect to a "testing means" (e.g., switches, indicators, etc), by the terms "visual", "manual" and "functional", cannot be determined.

Also, the corresponding language in claim 12, line 2; claim 15, lines 3-4; and claim 20, line 4, is likewise vaguely worded.

In claim 2, line 10, it appears that before "electric" should be inserted --said-- (note that there is a previous recitation of "electric power supply means" at claim 1, line 6).

In claim 4, line 4, it appears that --is-- or --are-- should be inserted after "light flashing means".

In claim 4, line 6, it appears that "cooperating" should be --cooperates--.

In claim 6, last line, it is unclear what other element "includes" the independent power supply means.

In claim 7, line 22, "there through" should be one word.

In claim 7, lines 26-27, "said printed circuit board...cooperating with 'On' and 'Off' power electric switching means cooperating with electric circuit logic means" is vaguely worded in view of the multiple uses of "cooperating with", i.e. it is unclear whether just the 'On'/'Off' switching means, or both the printed circuit board and the 'On'/'Off' switching means, "cooperate with" the electric circuit logic means.

In claim 9, lines 13-14, it appears that "the 'armed' condition" should be --an 'armed' condition--, since it does not appear that such a condition of the "'delay alarm' operational mode" was previously recited.

In claim 10, line 2, "Said" should be --said--.

In claim 13, line 14, it appears that before "chime" should be inserted --said-- (note that there is a previous recitation of "'chime'/'delay alarm' modes electric switching means" on line 4).

In claim 13, the relationship between the "instant lock-alarm mode" (see parts (a) and (c)) and the "mechanical deadbolt locking mode" (see part (e)) is unclear; i.e., although these terms define separate "modes" in the claims, they appear to refer to the same disclosed "mode".

In claim 13, next-to-last line, "said 'delay alarm' means" lacks clear antecedent basis (there is a prior recitation of "'chime'/'delay alarm' modes electric switching means"--i.e., a switching means per se--but there does not appear to be a prior recitation of other components of the 'delay alarm' mode that would constitute "'delay alarm' means" per se).

In claim 16, line 9, it appears that "said electric power means" should be --said electric power supply means--.

In claim 16, last 3 lines, "responsive to the manual selection of said 'chime'/'delay alarm' modes electric switching means (i.e. 'chime' or 'delay alarm' mode) responsive to the opening and closing of said door" is vaguely worded in view of the multiple uses of "responsive to", i.e. it is unclear whether or not each of the recitations following this phrase pertain to the modes being "automatically effect(ed)" (line 16), or pertain to some other aspect of the device (e.g., actuating the alarm/chime means); and, it is further unclear if the phrase in parentheses ("i.e. 'chime' or 'delay alarm' mode") necessarily relates to, and/or completely defines, the possible "manual(ly) select(ed)" modes.

5. Claims 1-20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The related Novotny patents US 4,123,752; US 5,268,671; and US Re. 35,638, are made of record. Lee et al (US 4,258,358) was cited in the Reissue and '671 patents. Beiswenger (US 3,866,201), Maged (US 3,851,325), Lang et al (US 3,720,937) and Sosin et al (US 3,714,643) were cited in the '752 patent. Campman (US 3,896,427) and Lin (US 6,218,938) are cited to further show the state of the art.

7. A copy of the latest version of 37 CFR 1.121 ("Manner of Making Amendments"), 1.125 ("Substitute Specification") and 1.126 ("Numbering of Claims") is provided for applicant's use.

§ 1.121 Manner of making amendments in applications.

(a) Amendments in applications, other than reissue applications. Amendments in applications, other than reissue applications, are made by filing a paper, in compliance with § 1.52, directing that specified amendments be made.

(b) Specification. Amendments to the specification, other than the claims, computer listings (§ 1.96) and sequence listings (§ 1.825), must be made by adding, deleting or replacing a paragraph, by replacing a section, or by a substitute specification, in the manner specified in this section.

(1) Amendment to delete, replace, or add a paragraph. Amendments to the specification, including amendment to a section heading or the title of the invention which are considered for amendment purposes to be an amendment of a paragraph, must be made by submitting:

(i) An instruction, which unambiguously identifies the location, to delete one or more paragraphs of the specification, replace a paragraph with one or more replacement paragraphs, or add one or more paragraphs;

(ii) The full text of any replacement paragraph with markings to show all the changes relative to the previous version of the paragraph. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strikethrough cannot be easily perceived;

(iii) The full text of any added paragraphs without any underlining; and;

(iv) The text of a paragraph to be deleted must not be presented with strike-through or placed within double brackets. The instruction to delete may identify a paragraph by its paragraph number or include a few words from the beginning, and end, of the paragraph, if needed for paragraph identification purposes.

(2) Amendment by replacement section. If the sections of the specification contain section headings as provided in § 1.77(b), § 1.154(b), or § 1.163(c), amendments to the specification, other than the claims, may be made by submitting:

(i) A reference to the section heading along with an instruction, which unambiguously identifies the location, to delete that section of the specification and to replace such deleted section with a replacement section; and;

(ii) A replacement section with markings to show all changes relative to the previous version of the section. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived.

(3) Amendment by substitute specification. The specification, other than the claims, may also be amended by submitting:

(i) An instruction to replace the specification; and

(ii) A substitute specification in compliance with §§ 1.125(b) and (c).

(4) Reinstatement of previously deleted paragraph or section. A previously deleted paragraph or section may be reinstated only by a subsequent amendment adding the previously deleted paragraph or section.

(5) Presentation in subsequent amendment document. Once a paragraph or section is amended in a first amendment document, the paragraph or section shall not be represented in a subsequent amendment document unless it is amended again or a substitute specification is provided.

(c) Claims. Amendments to a claim must be made by rewriting the entire claim with all changes (e.g., additions and deletions) as indicated in this subsection, except when the claim is being canceled. Each amendment document that includes a change to an existing claim, cancellation of an existing claim or addition of a new claim, must include a complete listing of all claims ever presented, including the text of all pending and withdrawn claims, in the application. The claim listing, including the text of the claims, in the amendment document will serve to replace all prior versions of the claims, in the application. In the claim listing, the status of every claim must be indicated after its claim number by using one of the following identifiers in a parenthetical expression: (Original), (Currently amended), (Canceled), (Withdrawn), (Previously presented), (New), and (Not entered).

(1) Claim listing. All of the claims presented in a claim listing shall be presented in ascending numerical order. Consecutive claims having the same status of "canceled" or "not entered" may be aggregated into one statement (e.g., Claims 1-5 (canceled)). The claim listing shall commence on a separate sheet of the amendment document and the sheet(s) that contain the text of any part of the claims shall not contain any other part of the amendment.

(2) When claim text with markings is required. All claims being currently amended in an amendment paper shall be presented in the claim listing, indicate a status of "currently amended," and be submitted with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. Only claims having the status of "currently amended," or "withdrawn" if also being amended, shall include markings. If a withdrawn claim is currently amended, its status in the claim listing may be identified as "withdrawn— currently amended."

(3) When claim text in clean version is required. The text of all pending claims not being currently amended shall be presented in the claim listing in clean version, i.e., without any markings in the presentation of text. The presentation of a clean version of any claim having the status of "original," "withdrawn" or "previously presented" will constitute an assertion that it has not been changed relative to the immediate prior version, except to omit markings that may have been present in the immediate prior version of the claims of the status of "withdrawn" or "previously presented." Any claim added by amendment must be indicated with the status of "new" and presented in clean version, i.e., without any underlining.

(4) When claim text shall not be presented; canceling a claim.

(i) No claim text shall be presented for any claim in the claim listing with the status of "canceled" or "not entered."

(ii) Cancellation of a claim shall be effected by an instruction to cancel a particular claim number. Identifying the status of a claim in the claim listing as "canceled" will constitute an instruction to cancel the claim.

(5) Reinstatement of previously canceled claim. A claim which was previously canceled may be reinstated only by adding the claim as a "new" claim with a new claim number.

(d) Drawings. One or more application drawings shall be amended in the following manner: Any changes to an application drawing must be in compliance with § 1.84 and must be submitted on a replacement sheet of drawings which shall be an attachment to the amendment document and, in the header, labeled "Replacement Sheet." Any replacement sheet of drawings shall include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is amended. All changes to the drawing(s) shall be explained, in detail, in either the drawing amendment or remarks section of the amendment paper.

(1) A marked-up copy of any amended drawing figure, including annotations indicating the changes made, may be included. The marked-up copy must be clearly labeled as "Annotated Marked-up Drawings" and must be presented in the amendment or remarks section that explains the change to the drawings.

(2) A marked-up copy of any amended drawing figure, including annotations indicating the changes made, must be provided when required by the examiner.

(e) Disclosure consistency. The disclosure must be amended, when required by the Office, to correct inaccuracies of description and definition, and to secure substantial correspondence between the claims, the remainder of the specification, and the drawings.

(f) No new matter. No amendment may introduce new matter into the disclosure of an application.

(g) Exception for examiner's amendments. Changes to the specification, including the claims, of an application made by the Office in an examiner's amendment may be made by specific instructions to insert or delete subject matter set forth in the examiner's amendment by identifying the precise point in the specification or the claim(s) where the insertion or deletion is to be made. Compliance with paragraphs (b)(1), (b)(2), or (c) of this section is not required.

(h) Amendment sections. Each section of an amendment document (e.g., amendment to the claims, amendment to the specification, replacement drawings, and remarks) must begin on a separate sheet.

(i) Amendments in reissue applications. Any amendment to the description and claims in reissue applications must be made in accordance with § 1.173.

(j) Amendments in reexamination proceedings. Any proposed amendment to the description and claims in patents involved in reexamination proceedings must be made in accordance with § 1.530.

(k) Amendments in provisional applications. Amendments in provisional applications are not usually made. If an amendment is made to a provisional application, however, it must comply with the provisions of this section. Any amendments to a provisional application shall be placed in the provisional application file but may not be entered.

§ 1.125 Substitute specification.

(a) If the number or nature of the amendments or the legibility of the application papers renders it difficult to consider the application, or to arrange the papers for printing or copying, the Office may require the entire specification, including the claims, or any part thereof, be rewritten.

(b) Subject to § 1.312, a substitute specification, excluding the claims, may be filed at any point up to payment of the issue fee if it is accompanied by a statement that the substitute specification includes no new matter.

(c) A substitute specification submitted under this section must be submitted with markings showing all the changes relative to the immediate prior version of the specification of record. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. An accompanying clean version (without markings) must also be supplied.
